

Linley Still Serves

Among fellow Arrowmen, there was a Scout
Whose honor and integrity left not a doubt
That he was a shining example to all
Of what Scouts could be who answered the call.

A Silver Pelican, a Lodge and Section Chief
His untimely passing only adds to our grief.
Of what we have lost, we can only surmise
As we now contemplate his untimely demise.

Yet, Linley would be among those to add
That this is not the time to be sad.
He now serves the highest Elangomat there is.
In brotherhood and cheerfulness Linley is His.

■ Alan Smason

